About CEDI and USDA REAP Energy Coaching

The Clean Energy Districts of Iowa (CEDI) is a nonprofit consortium of Energy Districts based in 13 counties across Iowa. CEDI can help your farm or rural small business apply for USDA Rural Energy for America Program (REAP) funding for energy efficiency and renewable energy projects. Learn more at www.cleanenergydistricts.org/reap

Who Should Apply for USDA REAP Coaching?

In 2024-25, CEDI USDA REAP Coaching is available for free to farms and rural small businesses outside of metropolitan areas (marked in brown on map) in 14 counties.

CEDI provides priority assistance to customers and communities traditionally underserved by the REAP program, as well as certain types of projects. These include customers in disadvantaged communities and distressed communities, and those with smaller projects and pursuing underutilized technologies. We will make every effort to serve all interested customers. To apply for CEDI REAP coaching, please fill out our inquiry form at www.cleanenergydistricts.org/reap.

This is an Equal Opportunity Program.
Discrimination is prohibited by Federal Law.
